'La Poupée' Sung At the Century

By Sylvester Rawling.

UDRAN'S "LA POUPÉE" was presented by the Angelini-Gottini Opera Company at the Century Theatre last night to an audience of only moderate size, but one that seemed thoroughly to enjoy the comic situations. There was a continuous ripple of laughter over the adventures of the novitiate of a monastery who marries a doll to secure for his order a rich inheritance and, finding his bride real, sticks to her and forsakes the monastery. It has been done here before, but not recently.

Annetta Gottini was Alessia, the doll, which she acted charmingly. It's a pity that, possessed of a voice of much natural beauty, she spoils her singing by bleating. That sort of thing must be fitted in Italy, for nearly all of the singers, principals and chorus alike, indulge in it. E. Gargano was amusing as Alessia's father, the doll maker. In the cast were, A. Fiori, as the novice; M. Lovreglio, as Alessia's mother, and A. Baldi, A. Ferrara and E. Pangrazzi that have become familiar. Absent from it was Angelini, who usually shares the honors with Annetta Gottini. Lovreglio conducted without a score. The habit is no longer a novelty.

Saks Suits for Men at $25

by advertising that they are $35 values
—yet we are probably the only house that would be justified in doing so!

The fact is, the value of a Saks suit cannot be determined by the price of another, because on the score of style Saks clothes and other clothes are not susceptible of comparison.

Given the same fabric and the same model, a Saks suit and another suit would still differ as the specific gravity of water differs from the specific gravity of oil.

All $25 suits, ours and others, are tailored this season on well formulated lines, but we base our bid for your favor on the fact that these Saks suits at $25 are more formulative than formulated—more creative than conformative—and more individual than imitative.

These $25 suits have style—not the mere style of the fashion plate, which exists for the guidance of every Tom, Dick and Harry, with a pair of scissors and a bench—but style which it took inspiration, aspiration and perspiration to evolve!

Gentlemen, we want to see you on these $25 suits, and you no less need to see us. These are not suits merely to wear and walk in and work in, but suits that have a style of their own—garments which a man can feel proud of and enjoy!

325 MODELS—Close fitting English styles, with shorter, snugger, smarter, narrower coats, trimmer trousers, and vests uncommonly high. Or conservative models, which, though not so noticeably ample as in former years, are none the less conservative.

325 FABRICS—Hard finished worsteds, unfinished worsteds, black unfinished worsteds, homespun, velour finished cloths, chevrons, blue serges, crashees, overplaids, pencil stripes and checks. Blues, blacks, grays, blue mixtures, and others innumerable.

Clearance of Trimmed Hats that were $5.95 to $8.50 tomorrow at $2 each

The Young Man who wants a $15 SUIT, should take 15 minutes to see the Saks assortments

That word assortments is such a garbled affair in clothing advertisements, that it is often difficult to tell what it means. At Saks' it means everything! It means every model that is worth wearing, every fabric that is being worn, every color and every design in demand for smart Summer wear.

Regulation models, with a fullness of line; English models that fit close to the figure and roll freely from the collar; Norfolk in any number of variations as to pleats and belts; all half lined, and all cut and tailored with that unmistakable and inimitable Saks' style.

The materials are blue pencil stripes, gray pencil stripes, shepherd checks, overplaids, homespun, fancy mixtures, blue serges and crashees—and as for the quality of these fabrics, we know of none so good in other clothes at $15, and we know that there are none better. Sizes 30 to 36.

A New Fichu Collar at 50c Value $1

This dainty fichu neckfixing is made of Brussels net, with hem-stitched collar and full shirred ends, edged with fine net pleating or German Val. lace, in white, cream and black. It is quite too pretty to be so low in price, and quite too notable an opportunity on this account for you to miss.

Serviceable Summer SHOES for Misses and Children at reasonable prices

And because we are particularly insistent upon quality and workmanship from our makers, Saks shoes are notoriously hard to wear out. The new ankle ties and pumps which we have assembled for young people this Summer, embrace the newest models and the wanted leathers, and from the viewpoint of serviceability, there is nothing better in footwear. $1.50 to $3. For Growing Girls. A special Colonial model, with low heels and metal buckles, in white canvas, patent leather and gun metal calf. $3 and $4. Scout Shoes for Youths and Boys. ### Reductions tomorrow in Misses' & Children's Straw Hats

But here and there the assortments are depleted, and the clearance at these prices is considered expedient on that account. All the latest designs, the newest straws and trimmings, and these colorings: Navy, brown, Nell Rose, as well as black.

$6 Hats ..... reduced to $2.95

BOYS' SUITS like these cannot be bought elsewhere at these prices

Durability of fabrics and excellence of tailoring never have been the only merits of our productions for boys. Rather, we have combined these considerations with one other, which is generally overlooked in garments for youthful wearers—Style. These suits are designed, cut and tailored with an uncommon degree of individuality, and they will give to that boy of yours a sprightliness of appearance which, if he has not yet worn Saks clothes, he has never had before.
